Are you fulfilling your obligation?

As the warrior draws the arrow most trustworthy from the quiver, you were drawn from many others...

If through many moons unflinching you hold fast to your Scouting pledges, straight and true you each will travel as an arrow driven skyward, as an eagle soaring sunward.

He who follows such a pathway in unwavering cheerful service will be seen by many others and, by inspiration, lead them.

2012 Summer Resource Camp, OBSR

Calling our fellow Arrowmen:

“For he who serves his fellows is, of all his fellows, greatest.”

– Dr. E. Urner Goodman

When you tested the bow, did you think that it was a silly action? Did you fully understand the symbolism of what you were doing? Who among us tests the bow, but, upon the least adversity, shrinks away? Do you want to TEST the BOW?

Resource camp is a place where Arrowmen can truly practice “Testing the Bow.” This is a place where we can put into real life application the art of cheerfulness, service, and brotherhood. “Testing the Bow” means to teach a younger Scout a skill. Or assist in the development of a young leader. “Testing the Bow” means to serve where the need is greatest. It means to help build YOUR council camp. It means selfless service to the good of all. “Testing the Bow” means that you are the greatest of your fellows who serves the fellows best.

Come join us and be all that Arrowmen can possibly be at Old Ben Summer Resource Camp this June 1-8. We promise you every opportunity to serve and to do so humbly as the greatest of all Arrowmen. Contact either one of us if you want to be the greatest of all your fellows and serve.
